Hello

My name is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I am reporting a violent call to action related to the Ambassador bridge shutdown.
" Slash the tires, empty gas tanks" is part of a tweet, from a "@Harvard prof, @CNN Analyst & CEO of Grip Mobility. Nat'l security expert, former Obama @DHSgov."
<https://twitter.com/juliettekayyem/status/1491757167308902405>

This is not an anonymous account.

This is a foreign actor, calling for violent action, from a verified account with a large following.

This is an immediate security threat, as a call to action to 198.7K followers from a Harvard Professor, should not be overlooked and be immediately investigated.

I will be following up with continued ATIP requests into this matter to ensure it has been investigated and the security threat has been dealt with appropriately.

Thank you.
